

Mr. Thomas Austin, affectionately known as TJ, is a pillar of strength and positivity in his community and has a remarkable journey from his roots in Dothan, AL., to his current role as Line Supervisor. With 16 years of dedicated service, TJ's commitment to excellence and leadership shines through in his role. Starting as a part-time driver in 2008, he quickly rose to the position of Line Supervisor, ensuring all routes are covered, drivers are present, and operations run smoothly. TJ's career path, transitioning from Alabama Power to Southern Company, reflects his adaptability and dedication to growth. His experiences chauffeuring legends like Sammy Davis Jr., Dean Martin, and Judy London in New York showcase his rich history. As the Chairman of the Deacon Board at St. Mathis Baptist Church, TJ's faith and community involvement are integral to his identity. His story exemplifies the power of passion, perseverance, and a lifelong commitment to service. In a world where positivity can be a rare gem, TJ shines brightly as a beacon of unwavering optimism and infectious enthusiasm. Affectionately known as "Mr. Great," he embodies the belief that every day is an opportunity to spread joy and make a difference in someone's life. TJ's zest for life extends beyond the workplace, as seen in his love for travel and exploration. A recent adventure to Washington D.C. by train with his daughter showcases his adventurous spirit and love for discovering new places. With a passion for cooking, particularly BBQ, TJ's culinary skills are a testament to his dedication and creativity. Whether he's grilling up some mouthwatering ribs with his signature BBQ rub or spreading positivity in the office, TJ's presence is truly a gift to the team. Here's to you, TJ, for being an exceptional colleague and a constant source of inspiration. Your hard work and positivity do not go unnoticed, and we are incredibly fortunate to have you as part of our team.
